

Wicket Gaming's subsidiary Wegesrand signs project deal worth 4.07 MSEK (370.818 EUR)

Wicket Gaming's subsidiary Wegesrand has signed a project deal in Germany with one of the largest German insurance companies worth 4.07 MSEK (370.818 EUR).

The project outline for the client is to develop an interactive digital solution for rehabilitation with live medical coaches and will be offered on website, mobile and tablet. The project is estimated to start by the end of October 2022 and the deadline is set to the end of December 2023.

In a comment, Wicket Gaming's CEO Eric de Basso says:

"It is fantastic to see how our subsidiary Wegesrand is growing within the Ed-Tech segment. With a high-quality offering, they have attracted a number of new projects and customers in a short time, and the interest in Wegesrand's services and products remains high. We have good hopes that the company will continue its expansion in a sector with very strong growth."

About Wicket Gaming

Wicket Gaming is a Swedish game development company founded in 2015. The company's business concept is based on developing and distributing so-called free-to-play games in the sports genre based on proprietary brands. Since its inception, the Company has worked to develop its first title, Cricket Manager, which is a manager game in cricket for mobile devices that aims to create and own its own cricket club and compete against other players around the world. The goal is to create one of the world's most popular cricket manager games for mobile devices and to use a technical platform to broaden the game portfolio to include other sports manager games.
